

PICKETS ON BREAD AND WATER DIET, IS CLAIM

Superintendent Whittaker Tells The Times That If Such Punishment Is Being Inflicted He Knows Nothing of It.

Are any of the White House pickets now serving sentences at the workhouse at Occoquan confined in the punishment cells and served only a bread and water diet?

The claim of the suffragists at Cam-erston House is that this condition exists. The statement of Superintendent Whittaker at the workhouse is that if such punishment is being inflicted he knows nothing of it.

The authority for the statement issued from suffrage headquarters is Miss Beulah Amidon, who yesterday visited the workhouse, and on her return to Washington made the following statement:

Mrs. Frederick Kendall, the Buffalo, N. Y., school teacher who is threatened with removal for her failure to report at the opening of the sessions, was yesterday placed on a bread and water diet at the Occoquan workhouse, and confined in a punishment cell.

Mrs. Kendall refused to scrub floors, claiming that she is too weak from lack of food. She requested lighter work.

For her insubordination she was placed in a punishment cell, and when Miss Lucy Burns, another prisoner picket, requested permission to see her, she was placed on a bread and water diet, which was lifted after one meal of this character.

Whittaker Denies.
This morning The Times called Superintendent Whittaker on the telephone and read to him Miss Amidon's statement. In reply to the question, "Is this statement in accordance with the facts?" the superintendent re-

Marines Keep Tonsillitis From Training Camp

That little or no tonsillitis has developed among the thousands of marines now in training at a Southern camp is due, medical authorities say, to the caution of examining physicians at recruiting stations.

An applicant with enlarged tonsils will not be accepted in the marine corps, as it has been pointed out that tonsillitis is more than a "mere ailment," and in a military camp will spread rapidly.

Medical research workers have discovered that tonsillitis is the "base" of numerous diseases, among which are inflammation of the joints and heart, the latter often proving fatal.

plied: "If any of the women sent here in connection with the suffrage demonstrations is on a bread and water diet in a punishment cell I know nothing of it."

When Mr. Whittaker's comment was called to the attention of Miss Amidon by The Times, she said that, while she did not see either Mrs. Kendall or Miss Burns during her visit to Occoquan yesterday, the report of imprisonment and bread and water diet was made to her by some of the other suffragists now serving sentences there.

An appeal to the Russian embassy in behalf of the two Russian suffragettes now confined in the Occoquan prison for picketing the White House is to be made by friends of the two, it was learned today.

The pickets, Miss Anna Gwenter and Miss Nina Samardine, already have taken up the matter with Congressman Meyer London of New York.

Friends of the women will ask the Russian ambassador to take up with the State Department the question of the right of this Government to imprison the two women, and also the matter of what is alleged to be unwholesome, and rancid food, which, it is charged, they are compelled to eat.

Miss Gwenter's Pleist.
Miss Gwenter, in a letter to Congressman London today, said:

Comrade Meyer London:
I am eight years in this movement, three-and-a-half years a member of the Socialist party.
Branch 2 and 4 of the Bronx, and I have been an active member of the Waist Makers' Union since 1910. I am from New York, but am now in Baltimore, where I got acquainted with the comrades who asked me to picket the White House, and of course I expressed my willingness to help the movement. I am now in the workhouse. I want to get out and help in the work, as I am more revolutionary than the women's party, yet condition here is so bad that I feel I must stay here and help the women get their rights.
We are enslaved here. I am suffering very much from hunger, and am nearly blind from bad nourishment. The food is chiefly soup, cereal with worms, bread just baked and very heavy. Even this poor food we do not get enough. I do not eat meat. When I told the doctor that he said:
"You must eat, and if you do not like it here you go and tell the judge you won't picket any more, and then you can get out of here." But I told him that I could not go against my principles and my belief. He asked:
"Do you believe you should picket the law?" I replied: "I have picketted whenever I had a chance for eight years and have never broken the law. Picketing is legal."

Please come here as quickly as possible, as we need your help.
Will you give the information in this letter to the newspapers?
Please pardon this scrap of paper, as I have nothing else to write on. I could write to other comrades, to Hillquit or Paulsen, but you are in Congress and can do more for the cause.

Yours for the cause,
ANNA GWENTER.

When hair growths appear, apply a simple paste, made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. Apply this to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a harmless treatment, but be sure you get the real delatone.—Adv.

McAdoo's Niece Becomes Bride Of Chicago Man

Miss Mary Faith McAdoo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ross Mc-Adoo, of New York, and niece of William Gibbs McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, and Lawrence Otis Wilson were married at noon today in St. Michael's Episcopal Church, Litchfield, Conn., the Rev. Dr. Brewster, rector of the church, performing the ceremony. Mr. Wilson is the son of Walter H. Wilson, of Chicago.

The bride was given away by her father, and was attended only by her younger sister, Miss Anne Brooks Mc-Adoo. Walter O. Wilson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride's gown was of white satin, made with a court train, and she wore a tulle veil with a coronet-shaped headpiece, and two strings of pearls extending from each side of the head to below the chin. She wore no other ornaments. Mrs. McAdoo, the mother, wore a handsome gown of lavender silk and lace.

After the church ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Adoo to the immediate relatives of both families, after which the young couple started on their honeymoon.
They will make their home in Chicago.

The bride is a graduate of the Bal-win School for Young Women, in Bryn Mawr, Pa. Mr. Wilson is a member of several of Chicago's well-known clubs, including the University Club, the City Club, the Onwastia Golf Club of Lake Forest, and others.

Mrs. Wilson was bridesmaid at the marriage of her cousin, Miss Nora McAdoo, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, to Ferdinand de Moh-renschild, second secretary of the Russian embassy in Washington, last May. Her engagement to Mr. Wilson was announced shortly after the marriage of her cousin.

Malcolm Ross McAdoo, Jr., only brother of the bride, was unable to attend the wedding owing to his duties at the military training camp in Plattsburg, N. Y. Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, who had hoped to attend the ceremony, were detained in Washington by important business, nor were Mr. and Mrs. de Mohren-schild able to be present at the wedding.

The marriage of Mr. Wilson and Miss McAdoo marks the culmination of a boy and girl romance. They met some ten years ago at Westbrook, Conn., where both families were passing the summer. Mr. Wilson's father expects to build a summer home in Westbrook for the young couple.

To Return to Capital.

Secretary of State, who has been visiting his family at their summer home, Highover, North Beverly, Mass., will return to Washington next weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, who leased "Woodley," the handsome home of Senator and Mrs. Francis Newlands, in Woodley road, last spring, will occupy the same residence during the winter.

John Story will leave Washington tomorrow afternoon for a short visit with his family at their summer home near Annapolis. Mrs. Story and the children will close the country place about October 15, when they will return to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Glover, who, accompanied by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carroll Glover, Jr., went to Yellowstone Park in the early summer, have returned to Washington, and are at their suburban residence, "Westover." Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Glover are at Bar Harbor, Me.

Lieut. de Cregin Montford de Courtizon, of the French commission, and Captain Rouvier left Washington yesterday for New York, where they will make a short stay at the Vanderbilt Hotel.

Japanese Envoy Goes With Ishii To New York

The Japanese ambassador, Aikaro Sato, will accompany Viscount Ishii and the other members of the Japanese mission when they go to New York on Thursday. Mayor John Pur-roy Mitchell has sent out invitations for a reception, dinner, and other official functions to be given in honor of the mission, and a number of unofficial functions will be given in their honor. The ambassador, Viscount Ishii, Major General Sugano, and Vice Admiral Takeshita will be guests at the home of Judge and Mrs. Elbert H.

Aikali In Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully.
If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali.
This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulitified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub in. It makes an abundance of rich cream, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy, and easy to manage.

You can get mulitified coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.
